

Application Process – New Applications: On / Off and Club Licences

Processing your Application

Within 20 working days of lodging your application, you are required to place a public notices* in your local new paper (South Taranaki Star, Taranaki Daily News or Wanganui Chronicle). The public notification must be circulated in the area relevant to the licence. Once the public notices has been published, the applicant MUST provide the entire page of each public notice to the District Licencing Committee as part of the application.

*One or two public notices are required depending on your risk factor. You may contact the Liquor Licensing Inspector on 0800 111 323 to determine your risk.

Within 10 working days of lodging your application, you are required to place a notice of your application in a conspicuous place in the premises.

An application does not guarantee the granting of a Liquor Licence.

The District Licencing Committee will:

1. Assess your application including:
 - Suitability of the applicant
 - Days and the hours during which liquor will be sold
 - Design and layout of the proposed premises
 - Steps proposed to be taken by the applicant to ensure that the requirements of the law in relation to the sale of liquor to prohibited persons are observed such as not serving alcohol to minors and intoxicated people
 - Whether the applicant is engaged, or proposed to engage, in the sale or supply of any other goods besides liquor or the provision of any services other than those directly related to the sale or supply of liquor, and, if so, the nature of those goods or services
 - Business case
 - How the business will mitigate any risk which could negatively impact the local community
2. Forward your application to the following reporting agencies:
 - Police
 - Medical Officer of Health
 - Liquor Licensing Inspector
3. Send an inspector to visit and inspect your premises
4. Determine all applications
If your application is opposed, you may be required to attend a public hearing.

Checklist

The following is required to be supplied with your application. Lodging an incomplete application will result in delayed processing times.
