Liz SINCLAIR

My principal place of residence is in the Taranaki Coastal Community Board area.

In the almost ten years I have lived in this community I have enjoyed its welcome and have tried to contribute to it. I own and run Pihama Lavender. This space has a long history and provides the opportunity to share with the community a very special space.

I am passionate about providing people in rural areas good with access to economic opportunity, telecommunications, and arts and cultural events. I am a supporter of healthy environment and one which is preserved for our future generations.

I have served the community for one term on Taranaki Coastal Community Board, I'm currently on the committees of Ōpunake and Districts Business Association; Egmont Community Arts Council and Pihama Hall. I am a trustee of Creative Taranaki
