Your Voice - For Local Representation

Arotakenga Kaikōwhiri Representation Review

We are reviewing how the South Taranaki District Council represents our communities by way of a Representation Review. All councils are required to review their representation every six years. In November 2020, Council decided to establish a Māori ward/s and that decision triggered the need to review our Council representation for the local body elections in 2022 and 2025.

What are we reviewing?

- How many councillors should represent the District? (South Taranaki can have between 5 and 29 councillors*)
- Are they elected from wards or 'at large' across the whole District, or a mix of both?
- Should we retain our community boards?
- Should the Māori representatives be elected from one ward or two?

Council must consider three key factors to ensure effective representation of our communities. This is required for both the Māori and General electoral populations:

- Communities of interest
- Effective representation of communities of
- Fair representation of electors

* The amount of money set aside to pay the Mayor, Councillors and Community Board members is determined by an independent body called the Remuneration Authority. It is based on the population of the District. This means whether you have 5 Councillors or 29 Councillors the pool of funding available stays the same.

How can I give my Feedback?
