Free Workshops and Open Mic Night

OPEN MIC POETRY NIGHT

11 JUNE 2021

HÄWERA LIBRARYPLUS
7PM

WITH BHM JUDGE
VAUGHAN RATAPAHANA

Free Writing and Poetry workshops are being held this weekend as part of the opening of the 2021 Lysaght-Watt Ronald Hugh Morrieson Literary Awards.

Join Short Story Judge Eileen Merriman or Poetry Judge Vaughan Ratapahana in a free workshop this Saturday 12 June at the TSB Hub.

Visit www.southtaranaki.com/RHM to register online, or pop into your local LibraryPlus. Spaces are limited.

Also part of the opening week is a Open Mic Poetry Night with Poetry Judge Vaughan Ratapahana who will share some of his work before opening the floor to anyone wishing to share.

Nibbles will be provided and everyone is welcome to attend.

Open Mic Night - Friday 11 June, 7pm at Hāwera LibraryPlus

The annual Awards officially opened at the start of the week and now entrants have until Wednesday 11 August to get their writing in.

There are three categories

- Short Story/Drama Script
- Poetry
- Research Article (for secondary students only)

Not only do you get your work read by a notable New Zealand writer, you could be up for some cash prizes.
